NON-CONFORMISTS WON'T FIGHT DRAFT

Sir W. Robertson Nichols
Gives Views of His Co-Religionists.

HATES DEFEAT MORE THAN CONSCRIPTION

Editor Upholds Traditions of Pilgrim Fathers and Cromwell's Ironsides.

The Case to the Tribune
London, Nov. 11.—"By the first of this year it will be determined whether we will have conscription or not, and should it be necessary you may be sure that the Nonconformists will uncompromisingly do their duty," said Sir W. Robertson Nichols, editor of the "British Weekly" and a competent spokesman for the non-conformist point of view, in an interview with The Tribune correspondent to-day. Continuing his words: "David Lloyd George's words last night at the City Temple, 'I should like to see every town, every city and every county what has been done,' I would like to see every county called upon for its quota, forebodings the end of partial conscription which will first if volunteer recruiting does not produce the men necessary. I think this method of enforcing conscription is very fair, for I do not know what would happen if I were to be compelled to be humiliated by conscription until those areas which have lagged behind in this noble cause are brought up to the standard. We non-conformists hate conscription, but we hate defeat more. Ours are the traditions of the Pilgrim Fathers."

SUSPECT IN BRITAIN LOOKS LIKE LODY

John Williams Southack, of New York, Complains to American Embassy in London.

London, Nov. 11.—John Williams Southack, of New York City, complained to-day to the American Embassy of an alleged systematic espionage by the British Secret Service, of which he said he had been the subject since his arrival in London from Brussels Saturday.

Southack bears a striking resemblance to Carl Hans Lody, who was recently executed as a German spy. He lives at the hotel where the German stayed and believes that this was responsible for his trouble.

Southack says that when he was in Brussels he was threatened with arrest by the Germans, who examined him closely, but his innocence was established through the intervention of the American Minister to Belgium, Brand Whitlock.

In addition to the American passport which he has papers written in German by American consuls in Germany, and he thinks that the possession of these documents strengthened British suspicion of him. Southack said that he was born in New York and was the grandson of an English bishop.

DUTCH BAR ZEELAND TO CORRESPONDENTS

Amsterdam, Nov. 11.—The authorities have issued orders that all foreign newspaper correspondents leave the province of Zeeland. The province of Zeeland is directly north of Antwerp. Through it flows the River Scheldt, from Antwerp to the sea.

Certain points in Friesland and Groningen provinces in the Netherlands, along the Ems and the Frisian islands, have been declared in a state of siege to prevent illegal exportation.

CALLS TURKS' GAIN GERMAN FALSEHOOD

Press Bureau in London

REPORT, VIA BERLIN, CLAIMS VICTORY

Says Russians Fell Back, with Heavy Loss, and That British
Were Beaten in Egypt.

London, Nov. 11.—An official communication from Turkish headquarters issued at Constantinople, transmitted by way of both Berlin and Amsterdam, is denied by the British official press bureau.

The communication reports that the Russians in the Caucasus have retreated on their second line of defense, suffering great losses, and that the Turkish troops have crossed the Egyptian frontier and have occupied Sheinzar and Fort El-Arish, and captured four British guns and held telegraph material.

The press bureau says with reference to this statement: "It appears to consist of false information deliberately spread abroad in Constantinople under German influences."

An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens says: "It is learned that a conspiracy has broken out at Constantinople against the Germans and young Turks. The chief conspirators were arrested and shot."

The population of the Ottoman capital, however, much excited as a result of the Turkish defeat on Sunday, visited resentment on a number of German non-commissioned officers whom they attacked."

Berlin Reports Victory for the Turkish Troops

Berlin, Nov. 11 (by wireless to Sayville, Long Island). The Turks are meeting with considerable success in their operations in the Caucasus and on the Egyptian frontier, according to official announcements made by the Turkish government and given out in Berlin.

The Turks have occupied Sheikaz fort at El-Arish, Egypt, and taken four field guns from the enemy. The Russians in the Caucasus have been forced to retire to their second line of defense. El-Arish is on the Mediterranean, near the boundary of Egypt and Palestine. It is of importance as a point of water supply.

Included in the information given to the press to-day from official quarters is the following:

"On our left wing the fighting was very severe between Niaport and the Lys with a very great degree of severity. Generally speaking, our front was maintained, in spite of the violence and the strength of the German attacks directed against certain of our points of support."

"To the north of Niaport we were even able to reoccupy Lombartzide and advance beyond this town, but toward the end of the day the Germans succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. We still hold our positions in the approaches to Dixmude along the canal, and west of Langmark captured the first line of the enemy's position. About 2,000 infantry were taken prisoners and six machine guns were captured."

"In the south our troops crossed the canal, and west of Langmark captured the first line of the enemy's position. About 2,000 infantry were taken prisoners and six machine guns were captured."

"No important information is at hand from the eastern theatre of the war."

"It is officially reported from Vienna that heavy fighting at Simont and Leintz was continued through the night and some of the enemy's positions were taken by storm. To the east of Kunzing the pursuit of the enemy is being continued."

"There are many signs of strong Russian resistance in East Galicia and in Bessarabia in government of Southwest Russia, this apparently being in connection with the Turkish war."

"General headquarters at Constantinople report that although snow is falling and in spite of a heavy atmosphere our offensive on the Caucasian frontier is maintained."

"There are many signs of strong Russian resistance in East Galicia and in Bessarabia in government of Southwest Russia, this apparently being in connection with the Turkish war."

"Our attack has made progress to the southwest of Lille. The French suffered heavy losses while attempting to reoccupy commanding heights to the north of Vienne-le-Chateau, in the forest of Argonne, and to the northward, and west of Verdun. French attacks were everywhere repelled."

"The British troops, attacked also at several points, succeeded everywhere in stopping the enemy."

"On the rest of the front the general situation shows no change, with the exception of slight progress by our forces to the north of Soissons and in the region to the west of Vailly, on the right bank of the Aisne."

"Outside of these two points only minor engagements, which resulted successfully for us. Particularly at Coincourt, three kilometers north of the forest of Parroy, we routed a detachment of the enemy."

Washington, Nov. 11.—Dispatches from the French Foreign Office to the Tribune here to-day duplicated the War Office communication announcing the capture of Dixmude by the Germans, adding that the French retired before superior numbers. The Minister of Foreign Affairs also denied reports crediting the vicar general of Rheims with the admission that the cathedral was to be destroyed.

"During the past week the specie received from the German Imperial Bank increased 27,000,000 marks ($8,750,000), while the circulation of notes decreased 86,000,000 marks ($2,500,000)."

"It is reported here from Athens that Bulgaria has refused to adopt the anti-Turkish attitude suggested by the Triple Entente powers in return for the promise of the addition of Adrianople to Bulgarian territory."

"The Bulgarian Minister at Rome has said in an interview that Bulgaria demands the cession of the territories inhabited by Bulgarians. Bulgaria will keep neutral in the present war, the minister declared, and under no circumstances will she fight Turkey."

"The president of the Turkish Chamber of Deputies, Halil Bey, has arrived at Bucharest, Roumania, on a special mission."

"The clubs and Bridge and Pinochle cards included in this sale we have lots of less than 10,000 packs and cannot therefore promise them, except to early purchasers. These cards have always sold at 50 and 35 cents a pack."
